

Downtown Residents Night

With the St. Louis Blues

We would like to run a little competition between each of the buildings in the city. Here are the details:

For the Building:

- Competition between all buildings downtown for largest group of Blues fans
- Blues will provide a second group night for a weekday game this season for winning building
- For every 1 seat purchased, 1 seat will be provided for the additional Group Night
- Seats will be located where the majority of tickets were purchased* (i.e. if 20 Plaza Centers and 5 Plaza High End tickets are purchased...we will provide 25 Plaza Center seats for the future game)
 - * We cannot provide club seats on this promotion, all club seats purchased will be counted as Plaza Centers for the contest
- Minimum of 20 tickets purchased required to win

For yourself:

If your building buys 10 tickets to Downtown Residents Night, we will provide you with 2 Plaza Center Seats for a game of your choice later this season.

The salesperson/property manager who's building wins the contest will be upgraded to Club Seats.

This will be a great event and a great opportunity for your building to come out to a Blues game. Also, we are encouraging everyone to appoint a resident in each of your buildings to put together a group for this game. We'd really like to show a crowd of 19,000+ people another reason to move downtown.
